PURPOSE

Ballarat District Golf is committed to ensuring that children and young people who participate in its activities have a safe and happy experience. To make sure that we create this environment, Ballarat District Golf's Code of Conduct for Dealing with Children & Young People requires everyone involved to abide by certain behavioural standards when it comes to dealing with Children & Young People (CYP). This table summarises those requirements. All behaviour towards CYP should consider the needs and safety of:

- indigenous CYP;
- CYP from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds; and
- CYP with a disability.

Code of Behaviour Requirement for dealing with Children & Young People
1	Language and Tone of Voice: a) Should provide clear direction, encourage, and affirm CYP and boost their confidence. b) Should NOT be harmful – i.e., derogatory (e.g., “you’re a loser), threatening, frightening, profane, discriminatory, racist, sexual.
2	Adhering to professional role boundaries: a) Act only within the confines of your duties/role (e.g., if you’re a coach, just be a coach). b) Unless with express consent from the Ballarat District Golf – Child Safety Officer, do NOT: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> i. Provide unauthorised transportation to CYP ii. Engage in activities or seek contact with CYP outside of Ballarat District Golf. iii. Involve yourself in CYP’s private and/or family matters unless you reasonably believe or suspect that they are at risk of harm. iv. Provide support to CYP or their families that is unrelated to Ballarat District Golf. v. Accept an invitation to attend any private social function at the request of CYP or their family/carer unless there was an existing social, personal or family relationship. If any of the above occur or you are made aware of a child requiring assistance outside the confines of your role, either contact their parent/guardian or seek advice from the Ballarat District Golf – Child Safety Officer.

3	Sending electronic communications to CYP (emails, texts and other direct messages): a) Must copy parent(s)/guardian(s) into any text, email, Facebook, or any other form of electronic communication message.
